

Continuing Education for Coaches and Officials

Mountain Club

Revised, December 2023

There are seven basic ways to accumulate coaches' and officials' continuing education: qualifying educational programs, online certification, online education, reading pertinent articles/ books, new "ideas, coach and official clinic, and high level swimming championships.

- Attend USA Swimming approved qualifying educational Programs.
- Complete Online Certification Programs.
- USA Swimming Online Education programs.
- Readings: Receive continuing education units you can submit new ideas that you took from reading an issue of USA Swimming Newsletter, USA Swimming Magazine, or any other coaching article, anywhere, anytime.
- New Ideas: What's an idea? It might be something you saw or read or it might be something the experience inspired you to remember from the past or it might be something the reading inspired you to dream up.
- Attend USA Swimming Regional Coaches Clinics if practice/training/lesson schedule allowed.
- Actively participate Zone, Sectional, and Futures championships.
