Electronic Communication Policy
Mountain Club

Revised, December 2023

Mountain Club primarily uses email to communicate with its members and parents of the members.

Email is not a private, confidential communication. The confidentiality of any email should not be assumed. Email should not be used for sending or receiving confidential or sensitive information.

Email should never be used in any way that may be disruptive, hurtful or offensive to others.